

RULES AND REGULATIONS 1965

You are required and expected to abide by the following:

- (1) Write your parents from each country visited. (They are paying the bill, they at least deserve a card.
- (2) Always comply to the time schedule, promptness has never missed a plane, (always keep your itinerary with you)
- (3) No smoking at any time in uniform, nor will we tolerate any use of alcoholic beverages, or games of chance. (We'll bring some cards along for gin rummy)
- (4) All choir members will participate in all scheduled sightseeing unless you are given special permission by a chaperone.
- (5) Be an ambassador (without port folio) abroad, avoid controversial subjects, remember you are a guest, please don't tell foreigners how to run their home and country. Local customs will come easily. You will be briefed before you enter a new country.
- (6) Act as ladies and gentlemen. (Self-explanatory)
- (7) Boys never visit girls hotel rooms at any time and vice versa.
- (8) Stay with the Choir at all times.
- (9) Never go singly, your expected to go in two's or fours.
- (10) You must eat breakfast and dinner with the Choir.
- (11) Always be available for bed check which will be taken each night, rest is an essential factor for your well being, so when lights are to be out, we mean it.
- (12) Remember the doctor is your friend, report the slightest illness to him at once, he will always be available.
- (13) You are not to drive, sit in, ride in a vehicle, boat, airplane or anything else living or dead without Mr. Thomas's permission. (I normally do not give this permission any how!)
- (14) You are responsible for your own luggage and personal belongings, sorry girls, boys can not help you.
- (15) All request of chaperones are final.
- (16) Any Souvenir's will be given you, they are not to be taken or borrowed.
- (17) The good neighbor policy will only be extended to choir members, sorry boys, no girlfriend in every port.
